FORT MYERS

A 70-acre swath of Fort Myers land that had been under contract to become a distribution facility instead sold to another buyer who is planning a 700

PSPR Forum LLC, which is owned by the Miami-based Wolfson Development, is planning to develop the acreage fronting State Road 82, east of Interstate 75 and just east of the recently sold apartment complex. PSPR Forum LLC bought the land from C-HACK LLC, a group of landowners led by the Huether family.

LSI Companies of Fort Myers brokered the deal and will continue brokering other developments planned for the front of the parcel, said Justin Thibaut, CEO of LSI. C-HACK LLC is planning a 700-acre development just east of the recently sold property.
